- Remember to visit the exhibit hall and get your exhibit and poster passports stamped to enter in the drawing
- Remember to attend our Young Talks. These are named in honor of the venerable Dr. John Young. They are focused and brief lectures will showcase issues of interest to the cancer surveillance community. The sessions are located outside the exhibit hall area during breaks.
- Please participate in our Social Media contest. There are fabulous prizes, and the Communications Steering Committee is available to help you set up an account if interested?
- All are welcome to attend the Birds of a Feather Open Discussion Forum from 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm Tuesday in the Picuris Room.
- Join us at the opening reception Tuesday evening from 6:30 pm - 9:30 pm in Ballroom C. We will have heavy appetizers, music, networking opportunities, and various awards and Certification.
- Rise and Shine Session 7:00 am – 8:00 AM in Ballroom C Wednesday morning. All are invited to this new session. Join us to discuss advocacy and its role in cancer surveillance. Sponsored by the NAACCR Communications Steering Committee.
- The roundtable discussion will explore ideas for retention and recruitment of Informatics professionals in the Cancer Registry community. The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 21, 2017 in the Anasazi Room of the Hyatt Regency Albuquerque from 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm.

- The NAACCR Business Meeting will take place in Ballroom C from 8:15 AM – 8:45 AM. All voting delegates are required to attend. However, all conference attendees are encouraged to attend the meeting also. Plenary Session #3 will follow immediately.
- Remember to give suggestions for webinar topics on any interesting sessions you attend at the conference. The suggestion cards were placed in your conference bags. Additional cards and the suggestion box are located near the registration desk.
- All bike ride participants need to take the complimentary shuttle from the Hyatt hotel lobby to Old Town. Please see the shuttle schedule in the program and mobile app.
- The Free NAACCR Walk/Run will take place Thursday at 6:30 AM. Please meet in the Hyatt Lobby for all those interested.
- Remember, this year's new format does not have a Thursday Luncheon scheduled. Lunch Thursday is on your own.
- Please remember to complete your evaluation forms that are available on the NAACCR web site. You will have the opportunity complete an evaluation each day following the days sessions. You will be sent an email delivering the day's evaluation.
